

Please consider legislation that will make all states adhere to the Federal Do Not Call List. It is counter-productive to me as a small business owner that operates completely on referrals from my clients. The friends and family restrictions in Pennsylvania and New Jersey are especially restrictive and we have seen a huge drop in our production due to these laws. Our government should be in favor of small businesses, not anti-small businesses. Thank you.
Barry C. Fenicle